

I must do the things God has called me to do. I must spread what I know to be true for my Lord has told it to me.

God made music. Music, is meant to be a portal from him to us. Music is a pipeline that takes a direct path into our thoughts without language. Music is a gift, and some people, refuse to use it as intended and therefore must pay the consequences.

Did you know Lucifer was a composer? That's why he hurt God so. God had specifically given him this special gift, and he turned his back on Him.

She must be exiled as well. Composers and musicians are meant to be puppets to the Lord for they carry this great responsibility. It is up to us, His soldiers, here on Earth, to make sure his will be done. I do not regret what I am about to do. My Lord will take care of me.
